MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Henry A. Kissinger
SUBJECT: Cambodian Situation Report

Attached is a statistical update as of 8:00 p.m. EDT May 10. The following are significant operational highlights:

-- US/ARVN units met generally light and scattered enemy resistance yesterday; however, US forces operating in Base Area 702 encountered the first significant enemy attack on a US unit. The enemy force employed small arms, mortars and small rockets in the attack, which resulted in 5 US KIA and 17 WIA. Sixteen enemy were killed.

-- A new large complex consisting of tents, bunkers and structures has been discovered in the Fish Hook.

-- COSVN Headquarters has moved further into Cambodia, confirming earlier indications that the Chhlong area has become a contingency base area for the headquarters.
